

Special Issue Proposal Form

please send it back filled out with all the details to the Editor-in-Chief

Dr. Hocine Bougdah (essd@ierek.com)

Thank you for your interest in publishing with us. We welcome journals/ research groups to submit proposals. We warmly welcome proposals for forthcoming special issues in our journal Environmental Science and Sustainable Development (ESSD) throughout the year and evaluate them based on scientific rigor and potential interest to our readership.

The following questions are designed to provide a clear picture of the proposed issue, which will help us to evaluate the potential publication. Please complete the questions as precisely as you can and provide a short CV of each author/ editor.
