

Brief Biography (CV) of Dr. Santosh Kumar Mishra

I retired (in the capacity of Technical Assistant) on June 30, 2020 from Population Education Resource Centre (PERC), Department of Lifelong Learning & Extension [DLLE, previously known as Department of Continuing & Adult Education & Extension Work (DCAEEW)], S.N.D.T. Women's University (SNDTWU), Mumbai, India. I underwent training in demography, with award of Government of India Fellowship, during 1986-1987 from the IIPS (Deemed University), located at Mumbai (<https://www.iipsindia.ac.in/>). Also, I acquired Ph. D. from University of Patna in 1999. My other qualifications include (a) Post-Master's Diploma in Adult & Continuing Education, (b) Certificate Course on Hospital and Health Care Management, (c) Diploma in Human Resource Development, (d) Diploma in Hotel Management, (e) M. Sc. in Hotel Management, & (f) Research Methodology Course. Professional training that I underwent abroad with grant of scholarship/bursary are (a) 5th European Policy Conference (Swedish Society of Medicine, Stockholm, Sweden, October 18-19, 2012); & (b) Healthy Life Expectancy from Longitudinal Data: Understanding how Health and Mortality Evolve Workshop (AN University, Canberra, Australia, 17-19 June, 2014). My prime area of interest and expertise include population & development, sustainable development, gender issues & allied subject areas. I have authored (some co-authored) (a) 5 booklets (including teaching-learning materials: published by PERC, DLLE, SNDTWU); (b) 4 books; (c) 23 book chapters; (d) 98 journal articles; (e) 2 monographs; (f) 7 research studies (published by the DLLE, SNDTWU); & (g) 88 papers for conferences (national & international: some with bursary for presenting research papers at international events held at Sweden, Australia, Tajikistan, the USA, Tanzania, Philippines, Ireland, Turkey, Nepal, Vietnam, Pakistan, UAE, Poland, & Egypt). I was invited as Guest Speaker (with award of scholarship) to present research paper at the 11th International Convention on Quality Improvement, which took place in Karachi, Pakistan, during November 26-27, 2007. I have served as reviewer for 28 international conferences (reviewed 357 submissions till date) & 98 international journals (reviewed nearly 190 manuscripts), besides contributing to 225 e-discussions, including surveys (many of which have been uploaded online). I served as Judge for the 2021 IHA Health Literacy Awards. After retirement from the SNDTWU, I am presently involved, in my individual capacity, as Independent Researcher (Scholar) with academic activities, such as authoring manuscripts (research papers), contributing to online consultations, & serving as international conference organizing committee member. Also, I am involved as collaborator for 124 international developmental agencies, including: (1) Ecosystem based Adaptation for food security in Africa Assembly, Kenya; (2) Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights, Switzerland; (3) Intergovernmental Science-Policy Platform on Biodiversity and Ecosystem Services, Germany; (4) International Knowledge Network of Women in Politics, Sweden; (6) Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, Italy; (7) Institute for Healthcare Advancement, USA; (8) International Institute of Knowledge Management, Sri Lanka; (9) North American Association for Environmental Education, USA; & (10) Wisconsin Health Literacy, USA. I have been awarded with Certificate of Excellence in Reviewing (by various journals) for 2017, 2018, 2021 & 2022. I have been conferred with Excellence of Research Award for outstanding contribution & recognition in the field of agriculture in October 2021 by TISPAS, Nagaland, India. During May-June, 2023, I presented research papers at international conferences that place in Dubai, the UAE (paper on: challenges in treating breast cancer among pregnant women), Washington DC, the USA (paper on: climate change and health consequences in Africa); and Warsaw, Poland (paper on: international migration & social integration): with award of scholarship. I was Editor for the IIP Proceedings (<https://www.iipseries.org/about-us.php>) & served as Jury Member for the Global Startup Awards Africa (<https://www.globalstartupawardsafrica.com>). I was Judge for the IHA's 20th Annual Virtual Health Literacy Awards (<https://hlc.iha4health.org/awards/call-for-award-nominations>). I have served as Evaluation Panel Member for the 9th International Conference on Public Health 2023, 3-4 August, 2023, Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia (for Best Paper Award). Most importantly, the visions of SHRI NARENDRA MODI JI, Honorable Prime Minister, the Republic of India, motivated me to coin new theory for addressing climate change issues [by way of me presenting (via Video Report of 45 minutes) research on Initiating Renewed Debate on Moving Towards Climate Change-Friendly Economy at CAE 2023 [March 24-26, 2023, Xiamen, China (<https://www.marchconf.org/conference/CAE2023>)]. Post-retirement, my activities include authorship, reviewer ship, & editorship.
