

Dr.Vimal Kr. Gahlot
Urban Transport Engineer/ Key Note Speaker
Sustainable and SMART Transport Advocate/ Road Safety Auditor

Dr.Vimal Kr. Gahlot, currently he is working as Sr. Engineer in Public Works Department, Jaipur, Government of Rajasthan. He is Honorary Director of Adv. CMG Centre for Research & Sustainable Development Bikaner, Rajasthan. Formerly he was Associate Professor and Head in Civil Engineering Department, Govt. College of Engineering and Technology Bikaner. He also got chance to work as Assistant Professor, Civil engineering in SVNIT, Surat.

After completing his graduation in Civil Engineering, He joined Master of Technology course in Transportation Engineering to strengthen the knowledge in field of Highway and Traffic Engineering. He has also been awarded with degree Doctor of Philosophy in Civil Engineering for his extensive research in field of Transportation Engineering by Malaviya National Institute of Technology (MNIT),Jaipur.

Dr. Vimal has long experience of 16 years in the field of academics, research, development and execution of road and Highway projects. He has been involved in PMGSY, NABARD and World Bank funded Road Projects. He was awarded with CERTIFICATE OF MERIT 2014, for discharging Excellent Services to Public Works Department by the Govt. of Rajasthan.

His research interests and area of working include Highway and Traffic Engineering, public transport planning, pedestrian and non- motorized traffic planning, Road safety Audit, computer simulation & modeling, application of Geographic Information System to Transportation Engineering (GIS-T). In last few years he is inclined to adapt and advocating sustainable and smart transport for Indian cities.

Dr. Gahlot has published more than 22 Technical papers in International and National journals. Being a keen researcher, He has also attended many International -National conferences, Workshops, Seminars and Summits in India and abroad as keynote Speaker.

Dr. Gahlot is also bearing responsibility of Honorary Director of Adv. CMG Centre for Research & Sustainable Development and leading young talent. He remains an active member of the Indian Road Congress (IRC) and Institute of Transport (IUT). His personal interests include organizing Road Safety Awareness Campaign and Workshops, Technical Seminars and Talks, Yoga & Meditation Workshops, listening to music and social networking. He is a freelance Technical and social articles writer for many National News paper and Magazine. He is supported by his wife ARTI, loving son REYANSH and daughter GAURAVI. Specialist: Sustainable and SMART Urban Transport, Road Safety Audit and Training, Inclusive Planning, Integrated Public Transport.